CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

The Rev. Spurgeon, of London, denies the soft impeachment that he has to use spirituous liquors to keep up. He says he is a total abstainer as a rule.

An improbable story is current in New York that the Central Pacific railroad and branches are now in the hands of the Flood & O'Brien firm, having been transferred in a settlement for borrowed money.

In the Cobb-Bishop murder trial at Norwich, Conn., Mrs. Cobb, on the witness stand, in a straightforward story denied the truth of Bishop's statement as to her complicity in the affair.

At the caucus of the Republican members of the Colorado legislature Prof. N. H. Hill was nominated for U. S. senator on the fourth ballot. Will elect on the 14th.

The testimony before the Teller committee, at New Orleans, still goes to show that intimidation prevailed.

Beard's finished his task of shooting 6000 glass balls out of 6200. He broke 6000 in 6013 shots.

Several millions of four per cents were taken in San Francisco last year.

The Nevada bank on the 9th inst. sold 250,000 ounces of fine silver to the government, delivered at the San Francisco mint, at $1.08 per ounce.

P. S. O'Brien, the adopted brother of the late W. S. O'Brien, with his wife and daughter, suddenly left the Baldwin hotel, Wednesday, and their whereabouts unknown. It is rumored that the claim made by P. S. O'Brien was settled by the payment of $500,000.

The United States on the 9th inst. began a suit for $10,000 against the Central Pacific railroad company, because the company refused to let the government commissioner examine its books under the provisions of an act of congress.

Telegraphic communication in all parts of France is interrupted by snow especially in the midland departments. Trains are blocked, and all kind of some of them are lost.

A dispatch from Rome says: The Pope has sent to the Bishops of the Catholic Church a very important encyclical letter, in which he speaks at length of the condition of the Church the Holy See and society and explains what he has already done. The document will shortly be published and it is believed will create some sensation.

Frightful Slaughter of Indians.

FORT GIBSON, Neb., Jan. 10.—The hostile Cheyennes, imprisoned here since last October, having been informed by the commanding officer a few days ago that they were to be taken back to their agency in Indian Territory, determined to die rather than consent to such a movement. Since the information was imparted to them they have become very sullen and have repeatedly expressed a determination to die before consenting to such a movement. They have become very stubborn for the past few days, and fearing an attempt to escape, the post commander has placed a strong guard over their prison room. Last night, just about 11 o'clock, while nearly every one was in bed except the ever watchful guard, the savages jumped through the windows of the prison room and made for the cold prairie, which is coated with frozen snow, firing on the guard from revolvers which they had concealed since their capture, dangerously wounding four of the guard, of whom one has died and another is not expected to survive. The main guard rushed out upon hearing the firing, and upon ascertaining the cause and seeing the fleeing hostiles running for the bluff, immediately followed, and opening fire, shot and killed over forty savages. The sharp bang of the carbine in the hands of our men can be heard from the hills three miles distant, where the savages have evidently made for. Over 100 cavalry, mounted and dismounted are still in pursuit of the fleeing savages. It is thought that not one will escape.

Culture on the Comstock.

[Virginia Stage.] There is perhaps no place on the broad American continent where the progress of civilization is so apparent as in Storey county, and where such good measures are adopted by the people for keeping pace with the march of intellect. It is true that you may find more night schools and literary societies in a factory town—but then such things are more needed in places where old-fashioned industries move their sluggish feet to funeral music. The average young man of Nevada knows more of literature than could be learned in a lifetime in a manufacturing state. It is in the air, and is so well established in the history of progress that it requires no argument to establish the fact. But if anyone should be skeptical enough to ask for proof, we will refer him to our dancing schools where the youth of the city learn to draw geographical descriptions of seaside resorts (such as Newport) with their feet. They learn to dip with ease, and "glide" with grace. Some people object to educating the feet, but we believe in developing those organs where most of the intelligence lies. It enlarges the feet and makes it easier to leave great footprints upon the sands of time.

"Stock Exchange" Paragraphs.

Grant made the longest speech of his life at Dublin. There must be something in the air of the Green Island that loosens tongues and thaws out ideas. Could Grant only be persuaded to stay there six months he might return to the United States and run a successful opposition to Tommy O'Connor and Hugh J. Mahan. Fire Commissioner Hopkins would be nowhere.

How interesting it is to have telegraphed to us from India that a band of "Masbua Wazirs," whatever they are, recently made an incursion into British territory—location not given—plundered the inhabitants, probably of a few pounds of rice and a yard of cloth, burnt a tank, worth perhaps $175, and were "pursued by cavalry." One is at a loss to decide who are the greater fools, the agents who telegraph such trash or the editors who publish it.

A masquerade ball is to be given at the Grand Opera House under the auspices of the Rice Surprise Party, and the committee will be selected from "well-known society gentlemen." In that case, we hope due care will be taken of the cash-box, and it might be well to arrange to have the carnival immediately after and not before the sailing of the China steamer.

Brother Justin of St. Mary's college denies the statement that the college is to be removed to Martinez. The Martinez Gazette ought to come out now and deny the well authenticated rumor, that Martinez is to be removed to the college—in an express wagon.

John M. Morin, elected speaker of the North Carolina house of representatives, is the anti-Vance man who voted for Merrimon in 1872 when the latter bolted the Democratic nomination and defeated Vance for senator. Vance now fears that Merrimon, in which case it is rumored that the former's friends will unite with the Republicans to defeat Merrimon's election. The party feud in this connection grows more bitter daily.

Almost a month ago the United States senate requested the house to transmit to it a copy of the testimony taken before the Potter committee reflecting upon Senator Matthews. The House having failed to do this, nothing will be done by the Matthews investigating committee. James E. Anderson, of Nevada, will be summoned as a witness.

NEW DEPARTURE.—On and after December 1st, 1878, the store of Manning & Duck will be conducted on a cash basis. Every customer will be compelled to pay for his own goods. No extra profits for bad debts. We propose to sell goods cheaper than they have ever been sold in this market. We are compelled to this important step by several weighty reasons: First, we wish to encourage prompt payment. Second, the prompt payment should not be compelled to pay an extra profit for the slow customer or the man that never pays. Third and most important reason, we are not able to carry so large an amount of capital on our books and keep up our stock of goods. Good edge customers will be allowed a credit of thirty days. If by agreement longer time is given, interest of 1% per cent a month will be charged. A. H. MANNING.

N. B. The old accounts of Manning & Duck must be settled by cash or note by the 1st of January or they will be placed in the hands of a collector for collection.

A CONUNDRUM.—"You are a mule, sir," said an Irish man to his son. "And you are my father, sir," was the quick reply, "and it is no use to deny the relationship." The gentleman attempted to assume a severe look, but a faint smile stole over his face, and to reward the wit of his son, went to S. N. Davidson's Jewelry Store and selected one of the finest Watches and Chains for him as a Christmas present. They both were made happy, as the son returned the compliment again.

RENO AND SURPRISE VALLEY.—Calderwood & Patterson's stages will leave Reno hereafter on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, at 8 o'clock A. M., and reach Bidwell, Surprise Valley, at 4 o'clock on the following days. Returns will leave Willow Ranch at 7 A. M. on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, arriving in Reno at 9 P. M. on the following days. Fare, $20 each way. Freight on baggage over 30 pounds, 5 cents per pound. Of 50 at Hammond & Wilson's stable, opposite Railroad depot. J. W. WILSON, Agent.

HAND THINGS TO DO.—There are three things that no man can keep a point on a pencil, a pointed joke and an appointment with a dentist. There are three things no woman can do—cross before a horse, hurry for a horse car, and pass S. N. Davidson's jewelry window without calling and examining some of his fine holiday presents on exhibition, which he offers for sale cheaper than ever.

The Arlington Avenue Nurseries have a reputation as broad as the State. Every tree and plant from the greenhouse to the orchard constantly on hand. Terms reasonable, prices low enough and satisfaction guaranteed. Address: R. F. CHAPMAN, Reno, Nev.

SIMMOND'S

NABOB WHISKEY.

Consumers are referred to the following extract from the report of an eminent Public Analyst: This is a pure barley and wheat spirit, remarkable in fragrant ethers, which impart a delicate aroma, at the same time greatly increasing its value as a digestive stimulant. The solid residue contains a large amount of tannin, derived from storing in oak casks, which imparts to this old whiskey one of its valuable individual qualities. The amount of the residue proves the whiskey to be free from the excessive coloring and sweetening so generally used in adulterating. In fact, in two words, it is the PUREST WHISKY, and will not only supply a public want, now that whiskeys are so generally adulterated, but will be of the greatest value to the physician in those numerous cases where pure whiskeys are the most useful of medicines.

Josh Hart and his large company of artists, will appear for one night only at the Academy of Music. They will give their entertainment on Friday evening, the 24th, instant. This company has just closed a brilliant engagement of six weeks at the Standard theater, San Francisco. The coming of such a troupe to Reno shows that the generous patronage which the town has given first-class talent is being appreciated. Reserved seats may be secured at the postoffice.

Charles S. Walton, business manager of the Josh Hart company, is in town to-day arranging for the appearance of the troupe. THE PRESS.

What Was Said About It at the M. E. Church Last Night.

Last evening the fifth union meeting of the week of prayer was held at the Methodist church. The subject for prayer was the press, authors and temperance. Rev. Mr. McKelvey, after the opening prayer, stated that he feared the Evangelical Alliance in arranging the subjects had been rather unfortunate in its selection for that particular night, as it gave the impression from the juxtaposition of subjects that writers were in special need of reformation in a certain respect. He did not believe that the Alliance had intended this, or that by recommending that prayers be offered for the newspapers that they were especially iniquitous. Mr. McKelvey believed that, all things considered, the press of this country was as pure as any under the sun. It is true that there are plenty of impure and pernicious publications. He referred to such vile prints as the Police Gazette and periodicals of that class. Groups of boys may be seen gathered around them when they are hung out on view at the news-stands, gleaning upon the illustrations in them and the accompanying print. The sentiment of the public was such that papers were compelled to be upon the side of morality. No journal, for example, would dare to openly advocate intemperance. There is not, however, any disposition on the part of the press in this direction. Christians sometimes feel offended that the newspapers give place to much that is offensive to their sensibilities. They must, however, take into consideration that the daily press is not necessarily Christian. Newspapers circulate among all classes of people and must give the news. The press, he was happy to say, was purer in tone than ever before, and the Alliance recognized the importance of its aid in moral education.

Upon the subject of temperance Mr. McKelvey related some incidents showing the grand work that Francis Murphy and others are doing. Dr. Hutchins offered a prayer for the press, referring to it as a mighty engine for good or evil, and asking that every writer for it might feel his great responsibility and be filled with charity and a desire to do good. Afterwards in some remarks the doctor held that the press supplied a demand. If there were no bad, immoral people there would be no bad, immoral newspapers for them to read. The newspaper should aim at the good, the beautiful, the true. The tone of the publications of the day is higher and better than in years gone by, showing that the taste and intelligence of the people have become more elevated.

The remainder of the evening was taken up in singing hymns, brief prayers and remarks upon the subjects selected by the Alliance. This evening the union meeting will be held at the Congregational church, where home and foreign missions and the conversion of the world will be prayed for.

The Sweet Children.
How dear the sweet, innocent children are to the world-worn hearts of men and women. How like messages fresh from heaven they are. Three of them, not one above ten years of age, were playing marbles in front of the GAZETTE office this afternoon, and one remarked in a voice that could be heard for three blocks against the wind:

"Here, you, Billy Smuggins, —
Put down that alley! —
you! You —
You're allus cheatin'!"

And William Smuggins answered in the same strain. The boys were all well dressed, too.

Head Off Fire.
The water facilities of Reno being anything but first-class it behooves the property owners to lose no time in insuring against fire. The place to do this is at D. A. Bender & Co's bank. Only A No. 1 companies are represented there. Read the list in the advertising columns of the GAZETTE and attend to this important business at once. While the ditches are frozen over a fire might at any time sweep over the town, and then a good assurance policy in the kind of wind that the singed lamb likes.

A High Compliment.
"Talking of barbers," said a gentleman this morning to a friend, "now in my opinion there isn't a better barber in the state than Nick Hammettsmith. He has a fine shop, employs competent men and has a splendid run of custom. That's the place I always go to. His shop is just in front of the Wine Rooms, and when I see a friend who looks frowny I grab him and turn him over to Nick."

Speaking of the case of Alf. Chariz, the San Francisco Stock Report says: "It is time now to extend mercy. Dozens of men have gone free in Nevada for far greater crimes than that, and so long as Mr. Chariz remains in his present confinement so long will the state, her local politics, her judiciary and her people be disgraced."

Masonic Social.
The first of the series of Masonic socials took place last evening at Masonic hall. About twenty couples were present. There was music and also dancing. Many of the guests went out and refreshed themselves with tea and coffee at Frank Singleton's.

It has been snowing in the mountains again to-day and a fierce wind, carrying a few flakes with it, has been sweeping through town. As the GAZETTE goes to press it looks as if we should have a snow-storm to-night.

A JUST VERDICT.

Trey Dye, the Sacramento Flood, to Be Hanged.

(Special Dispatch to the GAZETTE.)
SACRAMENTO, Jan. 11.—Yesterday in the Dye case the time was mainly taken up by witnesses for the defense, the idea being to prove that the murder of Tullis was so heinous a crime that no sane man could have instigated it. Many medical men were placed upon the stand. Yesterday afternoon the evidence was all in and the lawyers began their speeches, which were long. The defense pleaded for mercy to the extent of saving the prisoner from the gallows and asked for a life imprisonment. The case was then given to the jury which has returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree. Sentence of death will be pronounced on the 24th inst. The verdict gives general satisfaction. Anything less than the infliction of the death penalty would have been considered by the people of Sacramento as an outrage upon justice and a burning disgrace to the city.

THE PAINS OF PROMINENCE.

Serenading the New State Officers—A Music Jamboree.

(Special Correspondence of the GAZETTE.)
Last night at 11 o'clock the Carson Guards headed by the Carson band serenaded the new state officers. The first place visited was Governor Kinkaid's residence. Governor Kinkaid shortly made his appearance and was introduced to the guards by ex-sheriff Swift. The governor said: "I regret that our house is so small. If our house were as large as our hearts you would all get in, but under the present circumstances I fear it would be like Sherman's march to the sea 'pretty thin porridge.' But if you will permit me I will accompany you back to your armory and there get something to take off the chill."

Capt. Morger, in behalf of his company, congratulated the governor on his success and invited him to head the party. The next place visited was Secretary of State Babcock's. Mr. Babcock after some delay showed up and thanked the company for the honor they had paid him and in reply to Capt. Morger's invitation that he too join the ranks, Mr. Babcock felt himself again called upon and replied by saying, "Confound it, boys, I can't go. I'm not dressed." But nevertheless he stood in. Next claiming the attention of the party was Lieutenant Governor Adams, who turned out in his night shirt, took a look at the crowd in his front yard, smiled (as usual) and returned to get his pants, after which he joined the party who returned to the armory, where a collation had been prepared. After partaking of the good things, Capt. Morger thanked the state officers for turning out in the snow and tramping through the street with them and again congratulating them on their success, extended an invitation to all to visit the Guards and made his little armory welcome to all who might call. Governor Kinkaid replied in a few well chosen remarks and bade them all a kind good night. Carson, Jan. 10, 1879.

The Churches To-Morrow.

Attention is directed to the church notices in to-day's GAZETTE. The pulpits of Reno will be filled to-morrow by divines as able as can be found anywhere on the coast. Bishop Whitaker officiates at the Episcopal church and at the Congregational Rev. Mr. Drahm begins a course of lectures on the historical evidences of Christianity, and invites all liberal skeptics to attend. Rev. Mr. McKelvey, who previous to coming to Reno was the pastor of a large congregation in Virginia City, preaches at the Methodist church. One cannot attend any of the three churches without profit. The clergymen are all gentlemen of well-earned reputation and their discourses are sure to be full of much that will be interesting and instructive. The congregations at all these places of worship should, for the credit of the intelligence of the people of Reno, be much larger than they usually are.

An Indian Out.

The Indians have found some new way of getting whisky, as drunkenness has been very prevalent among them of late. Last night the reds had a first-class row at their camp to the west of town; and in the rumper one buck was very badly damaged. He was out about the head and face and so seriously that he will have a squeak for it. The unfortunate buck is, so a reporter informed a GAZETTE correspondent to-day, "the brother of Judge Haydon's Jim's wife." Judge Haydon's Jim is an aboriginal who has the wood for the judicial stove. The wounded warrior will probably be taken to the county hospital. The officers should ascertain where the Indians get their liquor and stop it, or somebody of more consequence than this distant relative to the legal fraternity will get hurt.

E. A. Fargo, a well-known liquor merchant of San Francisco, while going to the train in Virginia City on Friday afternoon, slipped and fell, and broke both bones of his right leg above the knee.

There is a chance for bargains in the line of groceries, provisions and notions. W. H. Holmes announces that on account of departure he will sell at cost until his entire stock is exhausted.

JOTTINGS.

—Truckee has incorporated.
—There are five prisoners in the county jail.

—The assessment on Boston is delinquent to-day.

—Len Harrison and Rickey, the detectives, are in town.

—A committee of the grand jury is at work examining the public records.

—For fresh mountain apples, pears and grapes, and nuts and raisins, call on A. Gould near the Western hotel.

—A petition for the establishment of a daily mail service between Reno and Willow ranch is receiving signatures.

—Rev. Mr. Jenvey is in Virginia City. Bishop Whitaker will therefore officiate at the Episcopal Church to-morrow.

—George Wedekind, the piano tuner, is in town and will remain for a few days. Orders for his services may be left at Davidson's jewelry store.

—Professor Scott's soiree at Kimball's hall to-night. Good music and good company can always be counted on when Professor Scott is on deck.

—James Gamble, general superintendent, and Frank Jaynes, assistant superintendent, of the Western Union Telegraph Company are in town.

—A private letter from Wadsworth states that last evening Dr. Springsteen's wife was so ill as not to be expected to live till this morning.

—The steamer Governor Blaisdell, plying on Lake Tahoe, has been thrown upon the beach by the gale. Another blow may knock her to pieces.

—The new heisting works are now in operation at the Con. Esmeralda mine. The men are drifting on the 50-foot level. On Tuesday next sinking the shaft will be resumed.

—The war among the barbers is growing fiercer indeed. B. Lane, of the O. K. barber shop, next door to the Granger House, now shaves for 15 cents and cuts hair and shampoos for 25 cents.

A Grateful Prisoner.

An item recently appeared in the GAZETTE concerning a young fellow who was sent to state prison from White Pine nine years ago under a four year's sentence, but who, by reason of his joining in attempts to escape, has worked his sentence up to twenty-five years. For some time past Thomas has been very exemplary in his conduct and his friends are moving for his pardon. Ryan, who felt that the world had forgotten him in his living tomb, was so grateful for the mention of his name by the GAZETTE that he sent the reporter a beautifully made stone bible, with clasp and all complete. There is a cherub upon one corner, and a cross upon the back. The book is a bit of art in stone and the reporter returns thanks for it, at the same time hoping that Thomas may soon be returned to freedom and a worthy life.

A Painful Humor.

A report was current to-day that Mr. Friedman, the barber, had shaved off his moustache. A GAZETTE reporter was at once detailed to visit the artist and ascertain the foundation for the rumor. The GAZETTE ambassador found Mr. Friedman busy on a customer's jaws and his moustache was intact. He smiled as the reporter repeated the rumor to him and said that it doubtless was the result of professional envy, he having recently reduced his price for hair-cutting and shampooing to 25 cents. "And I'm doing enough work for five chairs in consequence," triumphantly added the mutilated poet.

A STRANGER from Wadsworth rolled down street to-day in search of a place to spend his coin. A gentleman with oil on his hair accosted him, as follows:

"I say, my friend, come in. Your hair was a little long, don't it? You better get it cut, ain't it? Only two bits."

"The stranger replied:

"My hair may be long, but my memory is, too. I remember that I felt like a new-born babe when Friedman, the 'Boss Barber,' shaved me. I see his sign across the street down reader, and his prices are low enough for me. Good day."

GREAT REDUCTION IN PRICES.—At Osburn & Shoemaker's drug store: One-dollar Patent Medicines for 75¢; 50¢; 25¢; 10¢; 5¢. Extracts for 75¢; 50¢; 25¢; 10¢; 5¢. All other Patent Medicines and Toilet Preparations cheaper than can be bought elsewhere. Prescriptions carefully compounded from pure fresh drugs, and at greatly reduced rates.

COMPETITION is said to be the life of trade. This may be so, but it opens a field for unscrupulous merchants to palm off spurious for the genuine article. This is not so at I. Frederick's jewelry store, for although his prices are lower than ever before, he will warrant everything sent out of his store as representative.

"A THING of beauty is a joy forever." This poetical adage was never more truthfully illustrated than at I. Frederick's jewelry store. His new stock of Christmas presents are marvels of beauty and quality and cheapness.

Talk is Cheap.

And so we find clothing, boots shoes, hats and gentlemen's and boys fine furnishing goods, if you go to the right place to get them. This is a mighty important point, for some people who assert that they will cheap do nothing of the kind. I do not boast when I say that I defy competition in prices in anything in my line. Besides this I have only one price. I have no preferred customers. Everybody is treated alike at my establishment. My stock is the largest and most complete ever offered in any part of this State. Everything I have is new. No old, musty and out-of-date goods can be found on my shelves. I receive daily by rail and express the latest and best goods, which are obtained at first hand and sold at prices below those now prevailing in New York and Chicago. Let the people come and judge of my prices and examine my stock before going into those humbugging, cheap John shops, in which they drum into the ear of the customer that they sell at cost and even below cost. Anybody with common sense must know that they lie. No storekeeper sells goods for the fun of the thing. I make a profit on everything I sell, as every honest merchant does, and don't typical foolish falsehoods in the vain hope of deceiving the public. One must make a profit to live. I particularly call attention to my full stock of fancy underwear, such as is kept nowhere else in Reno. This class of goods form one of my specialties. Remember the place. NOBILITY IN CANADA.

Knight and Baroness—Who and What they are—A Knightly Law Clerk.

[Ottawa Cor. N. Y. World.]

It has been rumored that on the return of the viceregal party to society the mayors of the principal cities of the Dominion will receive the honor of knighthood; and the mayoralty elections in Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto and elsewhere are attracting ambitious candidates who otherwise would not care to run for that office. The leading newspapers of both political parties are opposed to this, and the more daring of the reform journals do not hesitate to say that titles are out of place here. There are at present ten Canadian knights and two baronesses. Sir John McDonald was created a K. C. B. in 1867, for his services on behalf of confederation. Sir Alexander Gault was made a knight commander for the Order of St. Michael and St. George for similar services in 1869, though he had expressed himself in favor of the independence of Canada. Sir John Wilson Buel Richards, chief justice of the supreme court of the Dominion, was knighted in 1877 with Sir A. A. Curzon, chief justice of Quebec. Sir Francis Hincks was knighted many years ago, when after a stormy political career in Canada, he was appointed to a colonial governorship in the West Indies, which he abandoned on his return here in 1869. Sir Edward Kenny of Halifax and Sir Narcisse Belleau of Quebec were knighted in 1857. Sir Albert Smith was knighted for his services as Minister of Marine and Fisheries during the Halifax Commission. Sir William Young, Chief Justice of Nova Scotia, was knighted in 1877, and Sir Hugh Allan in 1872. Sir John Rose, Bart., of the London banking firm of Morton, Rose & Co., was knighted for his confederation and other services to Canada just before leaving this country, and has since been made a baronet. Sir James L. Robinson, Bart., is the son of a former chief justice of Upper Canada, who was created a baronet for his services to the crown. The present Sir James is now a clerk at a small salary in the law courts over which his father used to preside. Hugh Miller, in one of his works, tells of a Scotch baronetcy which was held by a hoddar, to whom the masons were wont to cry: "Sir So-and-so, some more mortar!" In Osgood hall the lawyers call on Sir James Lukin Robinson, Bart., to register this or make another copy of that with the utmost disregard for his dignity. Besides these there are a number of C. B.'s and C. M. G.'s. Dr. Tupper, Mr. Langevin, Mr. Tilly, Mr. Macdougall and others are commanders of the bath, while many prominent government officials have been admitted into the Commandery of St. Michael and St. George. The distribution of titles has indeed been so lavish of late that leading public men have ceased to covet imperial honors, the Honorable George Brown and Mr. Mackenzie, the Ex-Premier, refusing knighthood in 1876. In Quebec, several prominent French Canadians wear papal honors, Mr. Langevin, for example, being a Knight Commander of the Cross of St. Gregory the Great. In view of the hostility of public opinion to the increase in the number of titles, it is probable that the alleged intention of their excellencies to recommend the mayors of the chief cities for knighthood will not be carried out.
